

Diego Licio

Certified Public Accountant – Partner

Office
Montevideo

Tel
(598) 2 902 1515 Ext. 180

Email
dlicio@guyer.com.uy

Linkedin
linkedin.com/in/liciodiego

Experience

Diego Licio is the Partner responsible for the Advisory Department of Grant Thornton Uruguay and works for Grant Thornton Uruguay since its foundation. Before joining the Advisory team, he led the Tax Compliance, Accounting and Outsourcing and Tax Advisory departments of the firm.

His practice includes, within the Advisory Department: leader of the "Advisory Services" practice which includes: Transactional Advisory Services, Business Risk Services; Business Consulting; Forensic, among others. For more than 20 years he served as an advisor in international tax structuring, tax advice of local and foreign companies, as well as non-resident individuals. Within the practice of tax advice, he specialized in preferential tax regimes such as Free Zone, Free Port, Customs Deposits, Free Shops, international merchandise and services intermediation regimes, legal and tax advice on trusts and foundations, to an extensive client portfolio local and region.

Endeavor entrepreneur; Leading organization of the global movement of high impact entrepreneurs. Select and support great entrepreneurs to grow, impact and boost economic growth.

ASN in Ashoka. International Network of Innovative Social Entrepreneurs. A global, independent and non-profit organization that leads the commitment to innovation and social entrepreneurship, building a society of citizens who are actors of change. Ashoka supports the work of more than 3,000 social entrepreneurs in 84 countries.

President of "Cámaras de Zonas Francas del Uruguay" and advisor in special Customs Regimes.

Director of an Important retail company in Uruguay.

Currently he is a professor in the Master in Accounting and Taxes at Universidad ORT in the chairs of Main Promotional Regimes and Off-shore Taxation.

Professor of "Colegio de Contadores, Economistas y Administradores del Uruguay", teaching courses on special tax and customs regimes (free zone, Free port, customs warehouses, international intermediation of goods and services and SAFIs) from 2004 to 2008.

Associate Professor of Taxes II at Facultad de Ciencias Económicas de la Universidad ORT del Uruguay (2001).

Professor of Business Environment at Mercosur in the Postgraduate of Facultad de Ciencias Económicas de la Universidad ORT del Uruguay (2005 and 2006).

Professor of Accounting and Price Change of Facultad de Ciencias Económicas (UdelarR) (1997 to 2001).

Diego is a Certified Public Accountant from Facultad de Ciencias Económicas (UdelarR) (1993) and has a Master in Tax Law from the Faculty of Law of Universidad de Montevideo - UM (2011).

Graduated from the Digital Transformation Program for senior management taught at IESE - Madrid - Spain (2020).

He is a member of Instituto Uruguayo de Estudios Tributarios.

Languages

Spanish, English, Portuguese.