Experience

Florencia works primarily in the Litigation Department. She graduated as a Juris Doctor from the University of Montevideo.

She has experience in corporate law, advising clients on business management, and has taken several courses focused on Uruguayan commercial corporations. She also has experience in arbitration law, where she has worked as a secretary for arbitral tribunals.

She participated as a student and speaker in multiple international arbitration competitions in Vienna. She has completed postgraduate courses on international commercial arbitration and on investment arbitration.

Her practice includes legal advice to national and international clients in general commercial and civil matters, covering negotiations and litigation related to commercial contracts, contractual and non-contractual liability, among others.
