CHAMBERS & PARTNERS

LABOUR & EMPLOYMENT | URUGUAY

The market-leading labour department at this firm has a long-standing relationship with prestigious national and international companies. Clients say: "They fully know our business, which gives us peace of mind." The lawyers are particularly helpful when it comes to negotiating with trade unions or the Ministry of Labour, which makes them an invaluable asset in sensitive cases. The team offers a full service in labour and has an impressive background in the finance sector. Highlight work here includes its assistance to the Uruguay Banking Association to negotiate salaries and labour benefits with the Council of Wages. Leonardo Slinger is "open-minded, attentive and really listens to his clients." He is also praised for being "extremely clear when he expresses his opinion." He leads the department together with Eduardo Ameglio, who has a practical approach, expert local knowledge and an excellent track record in labour matters. Ameglio has sound knowledge of his clients' business, which enables him to provide tailor-made solutions, according to sources.
